secured the second and the third positions, respectively.

Students said such events highlight the importance of team work, leadership, discipline and above all sportsmanship.

Lt Rajeev Kumar Varshney, ANO, 20 Punjab NCC, said the event was organised to create awareness among the students about the importance of sports for maintaining physical and mental fitness.

Sports president Sikandar Singh Sidhu and deputy sports president Dilbagh Singh motivated the students on the occasion.

Campus DPE Gurneet Singh Sra and Rupinder Kaur made their all out efforts in managing such a big gathering and providing all necessary guidelines in successfully completing the event.

Campus director Dr Jasbir Singh Hundal, under whose guidance and support this race was organised, addressed the gathering and expressed his concern about the diminishing interest of students in sports.

He said involving students in such constructive activities and channelising their energies in sports, NCC, NSS and co-curricular activities would keep them away from social evils such as violence, sex abuse and drugs.

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

BATHINDA, DECEMBER 5

NCC Day was celebrated on the premises of Giani Zail Singh Punjab Technical University Campus recently. Various activities were held to mark the occasion.

In the morning, a ceremonial function was organised at the athletic ground of the college, wherein Col Dinesh Nijahawan, Commanding Officer, 20 Punjab NCC Battalion, Bathinda, graced the occasion as the chief guest.

He encouraged students to join the armed forces.

Campus Director Dr Jasbir S Hundal apprised students about the importance of unity and discipline in one's life. He congratulated the NCC wing for providing a meaningful platform to the students for grooming their talent and learning the qualities necessary for becoming an officer in the armed forces.

The main celebration was initiated with flag hoisting and inspection of parade. In his welcome address, Dr Rajeev Kumar Varshney, ANO of 20 Punjab NCC unit of the campus, spoke about the importance of the NCC Day.

A run was also organised in the morning in which faculty, staff, their kids and students participated.

In the later hours, PT and drill competitions were held and finally results of various events were declared. Athletics, volleyball, basketball, badminton, PT and drill competitions were counted for declaration of the overall winner.

The overall trophy was won by 2 Punjab and veterinary unit of the campus. The main attraction of this function was that the unprivileged little children of daily wage contract workers and mess workers participated in the event. It is worth mentioning here that the college students and faculty of the campus are teaching these children in the evening.

This programme is being run under the title "Sahi Samajh Sahi Dagar". The function was concluded with the recitation of NCC song.

Vivek Kaudal delivered the vote of thanks.
